Date: 7th August 2024

Media Release

Flick Anticimex grows its market share in Melbourne through the acquisition of Exopest

Flick Anticimex continues its growth with the acquisition of Exopest. This acquisition strengthens its commercial, residential and preconstruction operations in Metro Melbourne.

Exopest is centrally located in South Melbourne and led by Simon Dixon who has been running the business for over 39 years. Simon has grown the business to be a brand name with a strong reputation, being known as one of the largest independent pest control business within Melbourne.

Simon Dixon, Director of Exopest commented:

"Firstly, we would like to thank our team, suppliers, and customers for being part of our business for the past 39 years. Our success and achievements are a testament to our amazing team, and our passion to deliver exceptional customer service and professional pest control solutions to our clients. Being part of Flick Anticimex, leveraging from their international experience as part of Anticimex Group, will allow us to further improve the quality level of our services by offering our customers the latest innovative digital sustainable pest control solutions, whilst also offering our employee's new possibilities as being part of this growing global organization."

Tom McMahon, Regional General Manager – Greater Melbourne Region. Flick Anticimex commented:

"I am very happy and enthusiastic about this merger as Exopest is a renowned and well-run business. Simon has cultivated many relationships with residential, preconstruction and commercial customers over many years which have contributed to the success of Exopest. We are all looking forward to working together with the team, as their culture of excellence toward employees and clients aligns naturally with the way we do things at Flick. I have confidence that combining our decades of experience with the latest technological innovations will result in an even better customer experience."
